220TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT AND BOSQUE COUNTY COURT AT LAW
STANDING ORDER REGARDING
CHILDREN, PROPERTY AND CONDUCT OF THE PARTIES

FEB 18 AM 9:30

NO PARTY TO THIS LAWSUIT HAS REQUESTED THIS ORDER. Rather, this order is a standing order of the 220th Judicial District Court and Bosque County Court at Law that applies in every divorce suit and every suit affecting the parent-child relationship filed in the 220th Judicial District Court and the Bosque County Court at Law except cases initiated by the Attorney General of Texas or Child Protective Services. The 220th Judicial District Court and Bosque County Court at Law have adopted this order because the parties and their children should be protected and their property preserved while the lawsuit is pending. THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. NO DISRUPTION OF CHILDREN. Both parties are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts concerning any children who are subjects of this case:
   - 1.1 Removing the children from the State of Texas, acting directly or in concert with others, without the written agreement of both parties or an order of the Court.
   - 1.2 Disrupting or withdrawing the children from the school or day-care facility where the children are presently enrolled without the written agreement of both parents or an order of the Court.
   - 1.3 Hiding or secreting the children from the other parent.
   - 1.4 Changing the children's current place of abode without the written agreement of both parents or an order of the Court.
   - 1.5 Disturbing the peace of the children.
   - 1.6 Making disparaging remarks regarding the other party or the other party's family in the presence or within the hearing of the child or children.

2. CONDUCT OF THE PARTIES DURING THE CASE. Both parties are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts:
   - 2.1 Using vulgar, profane, obscene, or indecent language, or a coarse or offensive manner, while communicating with the other party, whether in person, by telephone, or in writing (including text messaging or electronic communications).
   - 2.2 Threatening the other party in person, by telephone, or in writing to take unlawful action against any person.
   - 2.3 Placing one or more telephone calls, at an unreasonable hour, in an offensive or repetitious manner, without a legitimate purpose of communication, or anonymously.
   - 2.4 Opening, diverting or withholding or interfering with the delivery of mail addressed to the other party.
   - 2.5 Causing bodily injury to the other party or, if applicable, to a child of either party.

3. PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY. If this is a divorce case, both parties to the marriage are ORDERED to refrain from doing the following acts:
   - 3.1 Destroying, removing, concealing, encumbering, transferring, or otherwise harming or reducing the value of the property of one or both of the parties.
   - 3.2 Misrepresenting or refusing to disclose to the other party or to the Court, on proper request, the existence, amount, or location of any property of one or both of the parties.
   - 3.3 Damaging or destroying the tangible property of one or both of the parties, including any document that represents or embodies anything of value.
   - 3.4 Tampering with the tangible property of one or both of the parties, including any document that represents or embodies anything of value, and causing pecuniary loss to the other party.
   - 3.5 Selling, transferring, assigning, mortgaging, encumbering, or in any other manner alienating any of the property of either party, whether personal property or real estate, and whether separate or community, except as specifically authorized by this order.
